1. On 16 November 1959 [redacted] came, at his request, to consult with me on two items concerning Communist China: 1) the production of passenger automobiles of the luxury class in Communist China; and 2) the purchase by Communist China of Czechoslovak heavy electrical equipment for hydroelectrical sites.

2. We found that we were in agreement on the small scale of the production of luxury cars at the No. 1 Motor Vehicle Plant at Chang-chun. This branch had no new information on the Czechoslovak shipments of heavy electrical equipment, other than that
